

Personal data

In accordance with Greek Regulation EU/679/2016 and Law 4624/2019, the car rental company «FGRent» collects personal data, taking responsibility for its processing and protection.

Categories of personal data

«FGRent» processes the following categories of personal data:

Personal information: name, surname, date of birth, nationality

Contact information: contact phone number, email

Payment details: credit or debit card

Collection of personal data

«FGRent» collects personal data during the customer's visit to the company's offices, on Avenue Thessaloniki - N. Michanionas, in Perea, or through email, in order to achieve secure communication. The data is kept in the company's files for as long as it is necessary to fulfill the company's purposes and services. Under no circumstances, personal data is collected and processed without the customers' consent. «FGRent» prevents unauthorized access to data, while the company's personnel are bound by confidentiality to ensure the confidentiality of personal data. No disclosure or transfer of the information is made to third parties other than the staff members of the «FGRent» car rental company. Exceptionally, personal data is shared with Judicial, Supervisory and Greek Public Authorities in the context of compliance with a judicial or administrative decision, as provided for and required by the Greek Law.

Personal data protection rights

In any case, consent can be revoked, processing limited or even permanently deleted from «FGRent's» files, as long as the conditions set by the relevant legislation are met. «FGRent» customers have the right to request information about the type of processing their personal data is undergoing and access for any correction or update, in case the information is inaccurate or incomplete. The Personal Data Protection Authority is responsible for any resolution of problems related to the use and protection of personal data.